

Please Join Us for an Interactive Professional Advancement Workshop Series on Masterful Communication for Academic Physicians & Their Research Teams

The series is open to members of the division of General Medicine and IHPI

Dr. Deb Levine and the Cognitive Health Services Research Program (COG-HSR) are pleased to offer three virtual workshops led by Rena Seltzer, a leading executive coach for physicians and academic leaders. The workshop schedule is as follows:

- How to Communicate So Colleagues Will Listen:
Wednesday, May 14, 1-3pm
- Workplace Conflict: Tools for Conducting Tough Conversations: Thursday, June 12, 1-3pm
- Mentor & Coach: Utilizing Coaching Tools to Support a Dynamic Mentoring Relationship:
Thursday, June 26, 1-3pm

Please RSVP here. Note: you are welcome to sign up for one, two, or all three workshops. We ask that you please keep your video on for these interactive sessions.

Presenter bio:

Rena Seltzer is an executive coach and a dynamic trainer who has spent the past two decades coaching physicians, faculty members, and higher education leaders, including at the University of Michigan, Yale, Brown, Harvard, and the University of Wisconsin. Rena is the author of The Coach's Guide for Women Professors: Who Want a Successful Career and a Well-Balanced Life. Rena's coaching and workshops are influenced by her interest in supporting those whose social identities have historically been underrepresented in academic medicine.

Funding provided by:

COGNITIVE HEALTH SERVICES RESEARCH
PROGRAM
COG-HSR

Leading Research in Brain & Cognitive Health